

IN THE NINTH JUDICIAL DISTRICT
DISTRICT COURT OF HARVEY COUNTY, KANSAS

PROBABLE CAUSE AFFIDAVIT

_____, being first duly sworn on oath, says:

KEITH HAWKINS, committed the offenses of:

1. CAPITAL MURDER, in violation of K.S.A. 21-5401(a)(6), an off-grid, person felony;
2. MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE, in violation of K.S.A. 21-5402(a)(1), an off-grid, person felony; and
3. MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE, in violation of K.S.A. 21-5402(a)(1), an off-grid, person felony.

The reports of Newton Police Department were used in the preparation of this Affidavit:

On August 8, 2017, around 4:45 a.m., Greenwood Co. Deputy Ryan Bables was contacted in the city of Eureka by [REDACTED] who told him that two people had been stabbed to death on Roanoke or a similar sounding street. [REDACTED] told Deputy Bables the following: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Also on August 8, 2017, around 11:07 a.m., [REDACTED] went to #15 Roanoke Ct, Newton, Harvey County, KS, and called 911. He reported there were two homicides at the address. When Newton Police Officers arrived at the above stated address they observed the front door was open. Upon entering the residence they began a welfare check. In the north bedroom they located a female child, identified as [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Officers felt for a pulse and observed the child was cold to the touch. They believed the child was deceased.

Officers moved to the west bedroom. They located a woman laying on her back, later identified as Alyssa Marie Runyon, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] Officers felt for a pulse and observed she was cold to the touch. Officers believed she was deceased. Officers finished clearing the house and left.

Harvey County Sheriff's Office Investigator Josh Davis interviewed [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] reported the following: [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Det. Pfannenstiel interviewed [REDACTED] regarding the phone conversation with Hawkins. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

[REDACTED]

Sgt. Yoder entered the residence of #15 Roanoke and took photographs of the crime scene. During his investigation, he observed that Alyssa Runyon did not have any obvious lacerations or bullet wounds. This would be consistent with strangulation. He then observed

[REDACTED]

These crimes occurred in Harvey County, Kansas.

The above information is true and correct and known to me through the investigations conducted in this matter.

Affiant

Subscribed and sworn to before me on this ____ day of _____, 2017.

District Court Judge

From the above affidavit taken under oath, I find probable cause to believe that KEITH HAWKINS, committed the offenses of:

1. CAPITAL MURDER, in violation of K.S.A. 21-5401(a)(6), an off-grid, person felony;
2. MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE, in violation of K.S.A. 21-5402(a)(1), an off-grid, person felony; and
3. MURDER IN THE FIRST DEGREE, in violation of K.S.A. 21-5402(a)(1), an off-grid, person felony;

in Harvey County, Kansas, and that there is probable cause for the arrest as well as the detention of the above mentioned person.

Signed on the _____ day of _____, 2017, at _____ .m.

District Court Judge